CONFERENCE SPEAKERS

The concurrent session topics will be posted on the TASS website after the abstract submission form deadline has passed. Session topics must be appropriate for a mixed audience of college faculty, staff, and students. Our goal is to provide a mix of practical applications, current research, and new ideas that can be implemented or shared with other colleagues in their institutions.

Wally Nee (B.A., Harvard; Ph.D., Columbia) is the Lansing Community College Online Instructor of the Year and recipient of the College’s Distinguished Service Award. His books have been featured in over 100 books, book chapters, and scientific articles. He also wrote, “Strengths Based Workshops: A Facilitator’s Guide.”

Life’s Lift Trainings include: the Power of Your Mindset and the Power of Your Life. He is known as the “Mindset Mentor” for education, business, and leadership communities.
